

How to Write a Conclusion for an Essay Have Human Been Too Dependent on Technology

“In conclusion, it is evident that technology is an integral part of our lives and without it, we become “lost” since we have increasingly become dependent on its use.
(Thesis with main point)

To this effect, there is a great need to ensure that we stop becoming too attached to technology and therefore, begin to develop our brains and avoid the over reliance that we have on technology.” (ending on strongest point)
